"Shaun Rhue."

For years Scranton has greeted Joseph Murphy with big houses. His popularity seems never to caminish. Two generations, at least, have Lughed and cried at his "Kerry Gow" and "Shaun Rhue," and it is no rash speculation that a third generation will make up his audiences here, if his virility and the applianse provided For years Scranton has greeted Joseph Murphy here, if his virility and the applause provoked tatic by his "Shaun Rhue" at the Lyceum last night compose a fair criterion.

It is not the kind of a show your regular theatunity for some really ciever work, and Mr. Murphy, as may be believed, makes the most of His impersonation of a young west of Ire land man, impersonating a middle-aged north of Ireland man, requiring as it does two distinct brogues, is very creditably done.

feature of the show is Mr. Murphy's rendition of his celebrated song, "A Handful of Earth," for which there is, especially, a complete and protty stage setting, with grand organ their coming.

Wrestling at Star.

Max Lutberg, of New York, who proclaims binaself to be the champion 183-pound wrestler of the United States, made his first appearance in this city last night at the Star theater where he easily threw John Paris, of West Scranton, Lutherg agrees to throw any man of his weight in the city within lifteen minutes or forfeit $25. Paris, who is a husky looking youth weighed tilrty pounds more than Lutberg, made a try for the $25 last night and when the two men stepped on the mat it looked as if it would be easy money for him. No hold was barred and it was agreed that flying as well as pin falls

The two men went at it hard from the momen time was called and it looked as if Lutberg accured a fall within a few seconds but the referee didn't think so, Then Paris got hold of Lutberg's tights whereat the latter protested until the referee made Paris break away. He was on his back about ten seconds later, the time of the fall be-ing about a minute and a half. The supporters of Paris yelled derisively at Lutberg whereupon he agreed to throw Paris twenty-five times in an hour for a side het of $100. The offer was not Lutberg will meet a local wrestler named Ed Sweeney tonight and will try conclusions with Ahe Cochran, of North Scranton, tomorrow night. He will also wrestle at the matinees.

The wrestling match was preceded by a show given by the "Original Little Egypt Burlesquers." olio, which was passably fair, included nun bers by Rosalie, "the petite soubrette"; Marris and Daly, Irish comedians; McShone and Shannon, Greave and Greer and others. What was billed as a burlesque entitled "Behind the Scenes" wound up the performance.

"Under Southern Skies."

Grace George, who will appear at the Lyceum onight in "Under Southern Skies," has rapidly become one of the most interesting figures among the young women stars who are favorites with the young women stars who are favorities with our audiences. The cast is an unusually large one, requiring fifteen gentlemen and ten ladies be-aides Miss George.

To the attractions of this large and capable cast are added expensive stage settings showing beautiful scenes of southern blomes, and land-scapes, and characteristic southern hospitality and gayety are depicted in the festivities of the Hallowe'en party and the birthday supper.

Ward and Vokes.

Ward and Vokes will be at the Lycoum Satur-May matinee and night in their latest and what is said to be their greatest success. "The Head Ward and Vokes will be seen in their old-time favorite "Percy and Harold" act, re-modeled and alive with new comedy dialogue un-

THE MARKETS

Wall Street Review.

New York, Feb. 6.-The stock market showed New York, Feb. 6.—The stock market showed considerable excess of animation today and the dealings were much better distributed than for some time past. There were stocks which hung back and some which fell away on prefit-taking after recent considerable advances, but the general tone of the market was strong and speculative sentiment seemed much more confident. There was a feeling that the improved conditions were due to some development not generally known, and the professional traders who in fact did not know what they were were among the largest buyers on the supposition that others ally known, and the professional traders who in fact did not know what they were were among the largest buyers on the supposition that others who did know were in the nurket with them. These surmises had to do to a large extent with possible developments in the suit ingainst the Northern Securities company. Confident expressions were heard, but on anonymous authority, that the decision of the Supreme court was made up against the admission of the suit to argument. The supposition also found expression that the projectors of the great merger have an alternative plan to fall back on in case of the deciared illegality of the present company. It was argued that a foreign corporation might hold the securities of United States corporation might hold the securities of United States corporations and be outside the jurisdiction of the United States laws. The reported formation of a leasing company to control Metropolitan Street railway on a guarantee of the dividend was not of much benefit to that stock, but the evidence thus given of continued planning on the part of capital towards developmen was an influence on speculation. A social gathering of millionaires in Philadelphia represented to be present on affable terms. The importance attached to such unsubstantial conjectures indicated the continued predominance of professional operations in the market. The traders also made much of the reduction in the discount rate of the Bank of England as promising a relaxation of the pressure on New York for gold. The very strong return of the Bank of France pointed in the same direction. Of the day's movements in detail, Southern Pacific was largely in the hands of the same speculative interest which has been dealing in it recently, and largely in the hands of the same speculative interest which has been dealing in it recently, and the movement in Pennsylvania was also attributed to this operator. The Vanderbilts as a group were all strong and Toledo, St. Louis & Western stocks moved in sympathy with the group on rumored absorption in the Vanderbilt interest.
The gains in these stocks reached up to 6 points, Lake Eric and Western preferred showing the latter figure. United States Express made a forther advance of 7%. The rise of 7% in Third Avenue was due to comparison with its price with that of Metropolitan with an ultimate grarantee of 7 per cent. Illinois Central was also strong on the general consideration of its price level as compared with other equal dividend payers. There was a number or tower priced and less prominent stocks whose special attength was attributed to increasing dividend prospects.
Profit-taking made the closing somewhat irregular, but the incoads upon prices were not extensive. Total sales today, 764,900 shares. The bond market was active and broad and showed general advances. Total sales, par value, 84,055,000.
United States 37 declined 4 by or cent on the bast advances. Total sales, par value, $4,055,000. United States 3's declined 14 per cent, on the last call.
